University of Connecticut

This Week at the CUE:

AAC

Visit the Academic Achievement Center for help with time management, stress, test preparation, reading strategies, note taking, and more! Students will receive one-on-one advice, coaching, and academic support that can help them identify their individual strategies for success. The AAC is open Monday-Thursday, 4-8pm and is located in the CUE Atrium. For more information, visit aac.uconn.edu or email aac@uconn.edu

Honors Program

Oaklawn Scholarship
Application Deadline is April 1, 2011
The Oaklawn Scholarship competition is offered by the Honors Program for well-qualified sophomores and juniors. Students are eligible to apply if they did not receive merit financial aid from the University. Recipients of this scholarship are chosen according to academic excellence, involvement in the Honors community, and leadership values. Up to 3 chosen students will receive awards of up to $2,000 per year to be applied directly to the student's fee bill.
For more information, visit www.honors.uconn.edu/programming/oaklawn.php.

Enrichment Programs

Protests in the Arab World: Egypt, Tunisia, and Beyond
Thurs, Feb. 17th, 3:30pm, SU 304B
Global Citizenship Curriculum Committee is hosting a roundtable discussion on the recent protests in the Arab world and will feature prominent professors in related fields of study. This event is open to the entire university community.

Teale Lecture Series
Thurs, Feb. 17th, 4pm, Dodd Center
This lecture will be given by environmentalist and author Rick Bass and is entitled “Finding Common Ground.” This event is open to the entire university community. To learn more about his work, visit www.orionmagazine.org/index.php/articles/article/208/. For more information about these events, visit honors.uconn.edu

Career Services

Careers for the Common Good Fair
Thurs, Feb. 24th, 12pm - 3pm, SU Ballroom
The Careers for the Common Good Fair is for students looking for jobs, internships, or volunteer work with organizations that strive to make a positive impact on society. Students from all majors are welcome to attend.
For a list of organizations attending this event, visit www.career.uconn.edu/career_fairs_common_good.php
For additional information about Careers for the Common Good, visit www.career.uconn.edu/careers_common_good_main.php

Study Abroad

UConn in Paris Info Session
Wed, Feb. 16th, 4pm - 6pm, Arjona 339
Come learn how you can study abroad in Paris. Pizza and refreshments will be served. Email Roger.Celestin@uconn.edu for more information.

Deadlines

| Study Abroad: Summer 2011 Program Applications Due | 3/1 |
| Study Abroad: Fall 2011 Program Applications Due | 3/15 |
| Registrar: Last Day to Drop a Course and Receive a W | 3/28 |

Other information about events at the CUE building can be found at cue.uconn.edu

If you would like to include information in the “This Week at the CUE” about events, information sessions or workshops taking place in the CUE, please send an email to cueinfo@uconn.edu. Information is needed at least one week in advance.
The Quantitative Learning Center (Q Center) is a resource for students taking quantitative intensive courses (Q) across the undergraduate curriculum. The Q Center is designed to support in-class learning and instruction by providing assistance to students via free drop-in peer tutoring, review sessions, and the creation of innovative learning tools. We assist Q faculty to incorporate best practices in their teaching, and serve as a clearinghouse for information about Q resources and discussion of Q issues within the university.

As a reminder, the Q Center is located on first floor of the Homer Babbidge Library, our hours of tutoring operations are Monday through Thursday, 11am to 11pm and Sundays, 1pm to 11pm, and we offer tutoring for:

- MATH 1011 - 1152
- STAT 1000, 1100
- PHYS 1010 - 1602
- CHEM 1124 - 1128