University of Connecticut

This Week at the CUE:

ACES

Academic Center for Exploratory Students
Class registration can be overwhelming for many students. If you have questions about which classes to enroll in for the Fall 2011 semester, make an advising appointment with ACES to discuss your schedule. ACES advisors are also available on a walk-in basis from 9am to 4pm. To make your appointment today or to learn more about the ACES program, visit aces.uconn.edu.

Enrichment Programs

Response Ability: Causing a Tipping Point in Bystander Behavior
Tues, March 29th, 7pm, SU Theater
Have you ever had a messy roommate? Witnessed cheating on a test? Were you ever in a situation in which you felt you should speak up, but didn’t? Join us for this engaging keynote lecture by Mike Dilbeck, Chicago based video and film producer and Creator and Producer of the Response Ability Project. Learn how to seize the opportunity to act and take responsibility for problematic behavior around you. This event is sponsored by the Honors Program, SUBOG, Office of First Year Programs and Learning Communities, Violence Against Women Prevention Program, Residence Hall Honorary, Global Leadership Commission and more. This event is open to the entire university community.

For more information, contact Devin Opotzner at honorsevents@uconn.edu.

Writing Center

The Writing Center is now accepting applications for Undergraduate Writing Associates for the 2011-2012 school year. Students from all majors are invited to apply. The position involves tutoring student writers at all levels and from a variety of disciplines; tutors will also be involved in ongoing training and skill-building, and have the opportunity to initiate and lead projects around teaching, writing and community outreach.

Tutors ordinarily commit to working 8-10 scheduled hours a week during the academic year. Pay is $11/hr. Applications are due Monday, March 28th at 4pm. For application materials and information, visit writingcenter.uconn.edu/working_at_the_writing_center.php.

Please address materials and questions to Kathleen Tonry, Associate Director, at Kathleen.Tonry@uconn.edu; 486-9104.

If you would like to include information in the “This Week at the CUE” about events, information sessions or workshops taking place in the CUE, please send an email to cueinfo@uconn.edu. Information is needed at least one week in advance.
The Quantitative Learning Center (Q Center) is a resource for students taking quantitative intensive courses (Q) across the undergraduate curriculum. The Q Center is designed to support in-class learning and instruction by providing assistance to students via free drop-in peer tutoring, review sessions, and the creation of innovative learning tools. We assist Q faculty to incorporate best practices in their teaching, and serve as a clearinghouse for information about Q resources and discussion of Q issues within the university.

As a reminder, the Q Center is located on first floor of the Homer Babbidge Library, our hours of tutoring operations are Monday through Thursday, 11am to 11pm and Sundays, 1pm to 11pm, and we offer tutoring for:

- MATH 1011 - 1152
- STAT 1000, 1100
- PHYS 1010 - 1602
- CHEM 1124 - 1128
