The time to choose where you want to live is coming sooner than you think. The First Year Programs office encourages you to pick a learning community. There are 12 learning communities on campus. If you want to be surrounded by people that share your interests, then joining a learning community is the way to go.

Includes: Individualized & Interdisciplinary Studies Program (IISP), Office of National Scholarships (ONS), Office of Undergraduate Education (OUR), Honors, Pre-Law, Pre-Med, Pre-Dent.

UConn’s enrichment programs enable students to go beyond the classroom to personalize a comprehensive and challenging experience that will prepare them for our interconnected world.

- Honors: Partying with Professors Series (PWP): Lunch Bunch with Dr. David Gregorio Wednesday, November 9, 12 p.m. CUE 420
- ONS: Udall Scholarship info session for prospective applicants 11/07 12pm CUE 134
- Pre-Law: 11/07 Writing your personal statement workshop 3pm CUE 134
- IISP: Make sure to stop by if you want to be part of the Individualized Study program.

If you are interested in going abroad but don't know what it will be like? Well we have good news for you, there are now pictures of recent students who went abroad. Look through them and see what looks interesting. Once you decide, make sure to stop by the Study Abroad office.
